The Cabinet.

While the Cabinet is not such as many Repub licans would prefer, on strict party grounds, yet it is an able one, and perhaps as judicious as could have been selected, under the circum stances. There was a prospect of much opposi tion to their confirmation, on the part of Repub because of his report in the Louisiana case Republicans who are disposed to find fault with some of the appointments, should remember that the Republican party is not powerful to do as it chooses, as it could do a few years ago. From one cause and another, it has lost strength here and there, until it has succeeded in electing a President by the closest shave ever before known, and in a manner that affords an excuse for the disappointed and fault-finding to cry frand. It must do something to conciliate the disappointed, and to recruit its strength, or its career is ended. The Radicals of the party, and those who have atood by it under all circumstances, are certainly liberally represented by Sherman, McCrary and

There has been a great loss of strength in Nev England and New York, on the issue of Civil Service Reform, and thousands of conservative Republicans have assumed an independent position, holding themselves free to act with Republicans or Democrats, whichever should nominate capdidates that suited them best. From this cause, the Republicans have lost New York, and two years ago they virtually lost Massachusetts. The appointments of Evarts and Devens will be satisfactory to this class, and re-unite them with the party.

Another serious loss to the Republicans has been the defection of a large body of Germans, who gave the party much of its original strength. and who naturally belong to the party. The loss of this vote has seriously crippled the party. Mr. Schurz is a representative of this element, and of their views.

In the South, the white population has bee almost unanimously opposed to the Republican party. A large body of the Southern people, chiefly embracing the old Whigs, have never had any love for the Democratic party, and have only been operating with it, of late years from the force of circumstances. Whenever they have ground upon which they can sustain themselves in opposition to the Democracy, there i good reason to believe they will cut loose from them. Gen. Key is one of this class-having been an East Tennessee Whig, prior to the re

- The great difficulty with parties is, that when portions of the members become discontentewith their policy and acts, instead of tempering their policy and endeavoring to cencillate the dissatisfied, they proceed to denounce them as traitors, and give them a kick to help them out. This course ruined the Democratic party. It has almost had the same effect upon the Republican party, but the lost ground may yet be retrieved.

Last Saturday evening, John W. Wilson, formerly connected with the Topeka Times, met Swayze, of the Blade, on the street, and proceeded to give him a terrible beating, mashing him up generally, and knocking his teeth out. The ce was an item in the Blade, abusing Wilson. This thing had been going on for a long time, even since Wilson's connection with the Times coased. We cannot endorse this manner of revance: but if it it was ever deserved by any man, Swayze was entitled to it. It seems to have been about the only available means of defence against him. We have often wondered that he had not got it long ago. No man or woman is secure, if he takes a dislike to them, or they refuse to be black-mailed by him. Private character and the privacy of home afford no security against his assaults. Day after day, he will pour out his fifth and abuse upon them, regardless of age, sex, or condition. As an evidence of the estimate in which he is held in that city, it is said that many persons were standing by, and not one interposed in his behalf; but many offered to pay any fine that might be impose

The papers are complimenting J.S. Gilmore, of the Fredonia Citizen, for his efficient work in the Legislature in behalf of justice and right to ward the printing fraternity. He made a good member in every respect, and has reason to be proud of his first Legislative record. But the House, at almost every session, contains a majority of galouts who seem to like nothing better than a slash at printers' wages; and perhaps those most active in this business, are those wh have had the most assistance from printers in securing an election to a position for which they were unfit. The Senate, on the other hand, us nally contains a majority of men who know what is right and just, and act in accordance with that knowledge. Messrs. Long and Tracy, members of the House from the First and Second Districts, in this Couty, did not belong to the galoot crowd above referred to. But when a majority of a Legislature is composed of wild Texas cattle, the fair and sensible men are powerless, and unjustly have to bear a portion of the blame for the incompetence and folly of the majority.

Leavesworth is again complaining because there was pobody in Congress to labor for an appropriation for building a Unnited States Court House and Post-office in that city. Whenever Leavenworth has a caudidate for Congressman or Senator, the most bitter and violent opposition to him comes from Leavenworth men who claim to be leaders of public opinion. Four different times, in the last twelve years, Lesvenworth has lost a United States Senator because of personal opposition and hatred to the candi dates; and yet she complains that she has no one to represent her interests.

We this week publish two laws passed by the Legislature for the destruction of gramboppers. As the egg deposits in Doniphan County mbrace only the two Townships of Iowa and Wolf River, they can best operate under the law giving the Trustees authority to call out the

THE MYSTERY EXPLAINED.—The selection the Secretary of the Navy from Indiana has occasioned much comment, and it puzzles mos persons to understand what a citizen of that section of the country is supposed to know abou naval affairs. They do not seem to be aware that Indiana is one of the greatest maritime States, and that Dick Thompson has had rare opportunity of becoming acquainted with unvascience. He has resided at Terre Haute for many years, on the banks of the Wabash. This stream was, until within a recent period, navigable a portion of the year for light-draught tern-wheel steamboats as high up as Lafayette. Take a modern boy living near a navigable stream, and, although he may never have travelled a mile on a steamboat, what he does not know about steamboating, from the pilot-house lown to the mate, is not worth knowing. It may be supposed, then, that an intelligent, observant man like Col. Thompson would not negect to improve his opportunities. Terre Haute s also on the Wabash Canal. This afforded an other rich field for study and exercise. Doubtless, Mr. Thompson, many a day, worked his passage on the canal, by walking on the towpath and driving the horses, and improved the opportunity of observing the workings of a great navy. He likewise possessed advantages for flatboating equal to those of Abraham Lincoln, who, by the way, once invented a model for a steamboat.) To crown all, he is a splendid talker and story-teller, and whonever he has anylican leaders in the Senate, but they were all thing to communicate, he can tell it to the maconfirmed almost unanimously, except Sherman, whom the Democratic Senators voted against

The Democracy are sighing for the happy situation of the people of England, who are not compelled to pass through such scenes as were onnected with the Presidential count, and are wishing that they lived in such a country. When the rebellion collapsed, a good many of them sighed for an asylum in Brazil, where they would not be compelled to submit to the Union. But they all sneaked back long ago, and have been clamoring for office under the Government that they despised—in fact, have been endeavering to rescue the Constitution and the Government of Washington from the hands of the Republicaus, who are seeking to subvert it. Those felows who are looking with longing eyes toward sappy England, will soon be grabbing for the public teat with both hands and open mouth.

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION HISTORY .- We have received a copy of the History of the Centennial Exhibition, announced as being in press, some warks since. It is written by James D. McCabe. and embraces a concise history of the origin and success of the Exhibition, and biographies of the leading members of the Centennial Commission. It contains 918 pages, and is illustrated with nearly 400 engravings of buildings, exhibits and scenes in the great Exhibition. The book will not be for sale in the book-stores, but will be sold only by subscription. Agents are wanted in every County in the United States. Address National Publishing Company, No.

410 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. te We can't sometimes always understanne Web. Wilder, of the St. Joseph Herald. It we were correctly informed, he withdrew from the Fort Scott Monitor, in 1872, because he received in intimation that the paper was going to Greeleyize; yet now, when a man is elected to office who Greeleyized at that time, Webb. makes es secial rejoicing over the fact that the person so favored was a supporter of Greeley. We can see cause for rejoicing when one of these stray sheep

It is said in Washington, that Sartoris, Grant's son-in-law, has neither ambition nor money. So it seems that Nellie married a thickheaded lummix of a John Bull, in expectation of gaining a title, but will wind up with foraging him on the old man.

It would be fruitless to attempt in our limited space to give any adequate idea of the productions. Of course all were not exactly satisfied; persons entirely uninterested will differ in judgment of literary productions; about the best that can be done is to take the decision of the Judges.

Among the persons from abroad we noticed Rev. J. A. Clark, of Atchison, and also N. O. Johnson, E. II. Messenger and C. A. Hunter, former students of Highland University.

EF Senator Plumb has started out right. He voted for the admission of Kellogg as a Senator from Louisiana. If Packard is not the legal Governor and Kellogg the legal Senator of Louisiana, the vote of the Stafe for Hayes was not legal; for it all came about from the same canvass by the Returning Board. In South Carolina, there is more room for doubt, for all agree that Hampton ran considerably ahead of Tilden.

EF Col. McClure has issued the first number of the Weekly Philadelphia Times, an eight-page sheet, with seven broad columns to the page. It

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

SECTION 1. That in any Senatorial District in the State of Kansas where trouble is anticipated from the ravages of young grasshoppera, in the year 1877, and any subsequent year thereafter, it shall be lawful for the Counties in said Senatorial Districts to co-operate together in the way and manner herein provided, for the destruction of the same.

SEC. 2. The Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners in the County having the largest number of inhabitants in a Sentorial District, where two or more Counties form said District, may notify the Chairman of each of the Boards of County Commissioners of the remaining Counties in said District, of the time and place when the Chairmen of the several Boards of Commissioners of the respective Counties forming saidSenatorial District shall hold a joint meeting.

SEC. 3. At such meeting two of their number shall be chosen to act as Chairman and Secretary, and the proceedings of the meeting shall be published in all the newspapers printed in the Senatorial District.

SEC. 4. Said meeting shall designate the manner of procedure by Road Overssers, and what day or days the young grasshoppers should be driven from the cultivated land on to the unburnt prairie or places of destruction, and shall also designate on what day or days the grasshoppers shall be destnoyed, by burning or otherwise, in said Senatorial District, giving at least ten days notice of the same by publishing in the newspapers of said District.

SEC. 5. The Board of Commissioners of each County shall notify the Road Overseers of said County of the time fixed upon by the joint meeting for the driving and burning, or destroying by other means, of the grasshoppers in the District; said notice to be given to said Overseers as soon as practicable after the same shall have been determined by the Joint Meeting.

SEC. 6. Said Road Overseers shall direct the manner of performing the labor, and shall certify the number of performing the labor, and shall certify SEC. 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the daily Common realth. Approved March 7, 1877.

This Blow Our."—Well, the Republican jubiles over Hayes and Wheeler's election, on Tuesday evening, was a grand affair. Wagon loads of boxes and barrels were hauled, piled up and naturated with tar and coal oil. How it did burn! Three sets of anvila booming; the band playing, and an army of men and hoys bearing terches. Five hundred people jammed together on the corners to witness the procession, was to the real creditable scene that precoded the march to the new Court House, where there was not seen room enough for all who wanted to hear Judge Price make this brilliant speech; and where music, vocal and instrumental, was to be heard; and where beamers, transparencies, &c., &c., were to be seen, in great and appropriate variety. There is not a man in the State who could have filled the bill as well as Judge Price. We have not time, or reem to speak of the houses that were Illuminated. The bank building city hotel, Mr. James residence. Will. Johnson's, the post office, and much, were all lighted up nicely. It was indeed, a spiculid time. Herearch Dispetch, 6th.

This singular man lived in Greece. He was distinguished for his eccentricities, bad manners, and had disposition. It was his chief business to find fault. For example, he took a lantern one day when the sun was shining brightly, and went out to search for an bonest man, thereby insinnating that such persons were very scarce. When Alexander, a distinguished military gentleman, paid him a visit, and inquired what he could do for him, he had the impudence to tell him to "get out of his sunshine." To cap the climax of his oddition, he dressed like a beggar and lived in a tub! He was a sour, crabbed, crusty old bachelor. We infer that he had ne wife, first, because history does not mention her; second, because no woman would take kindly to his habits, dress, or manners, or aspire to become mistress of his mansion. "There was an old woman who lived in a shee," it is true, but the woman who would live in a tab, and especially with such a care. man who would live in a tab, and especially with such a companion, has not been heard from The misanthropic spirit which possessed this man was doubtless due to disordered digestion man was doubtless due to disordered digestion and a biliousness, one of the prominent symptoms of which is a morose, fault finding disposition. The tongue is heavily coaled, giving rise to a bad taste, the appetite is not good, and the patient feels dult, steepy, or disay, and is apt to be fretful. Unfortunately, Mr. Diogenes lived several centuries before Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets were invented, a few doses of which would have relieved him of his "bile." Purgative Pellets were invented, a few doses of which would have relieved him of his "bile," and enabled him to find sceres of "honest men" without the aid of his lantern. Under their magic influence, combined with that of the Golden Medical Discovery, to cleanse his blood, he might have been led to take a more cheerful view of life, to exchange his tub for a decent habitation, to "apruce up" in personal appearance, and at last have taken a wife to mend his clothes and his manners, both of which were in evident need of repairs, and become the happy sire of little Diogeneses, who would have handed down to posterity the name, not of a cynic philosopher, but of a cheerful, healthy, happy, rintens man!

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others, very few; but the Liven, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not Regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

DEATH will ensue.

I can recommend as an efficacious remedy for disease the Liver, Heartburn and Drappena, Simmone L. REGULATOR.

LEWIS G. WUNDER, 1925 Moster Street. Assistant Postmaster, Philadelp "We have tested its virtues, personally, and know that for Dyspopeia, Billouness, and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever use. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulater, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulater not only relieved, but oured us..."Ed. It contains four medical elements, never united in the same happy proportion in any other preparation, vis: a gentle Cathartic, a wonderful Tonic, an unexceptionable Alterative, and a certain Corrective of all impurities of the body. Such signal success has attended its use, that it is now regarded as the

Your valuable medicine, Simmons Liven Requiaton, has saved me many Doctor's bills. I use it for everything it is recommended for, and never knew it to fail. I have used it in Colic and Grubbe, with my mules and horses, giving them about half a bottle at a time. I have not lost one that I gave it to. You can recommend it to every one that has Stock as being the best medicine known for all complaints that horse-flesh is beit to.
